STRONG ON THE GOSPELS.

NEW Harmony and Exposition of the Gospels: Consisting of a Parallel and Combined Arrangement, on a New Plan, of the Narratives of the Four Evangelists, according to the Authorized Translation: and a Continuous Commentary, with Brief Notes subjoined. Budgethe First Period of the Gospel History. With a Supplement, containing extended Chronological and Topographical Dissertations, and a complete Analytical Index. By James Strans, A. M. Illustrated by Maps and Engravings. Bro., pp. 569. Price 23.

"In point of external finish—paper, printing, binding, and graphic illustration—this is by far the finest book that has yet been issued from the Methodist Book Concern. And the gem is worth the setting. The b8ok is a noble example of the application of genuine learning, unwearded industry, and critical sagacity to that highest of all objects to which the will of man can apply itself—the illustration of the Christian Scriptures.

"The illustrations, nineteen in number, are partly lithographs thated in the finest style of the art, partly steel, and partly wood engravings, all executed in the very best manner.

"A better Harmony, on a better plan than this of Mr. STRONG ON THE GOSPELS.

partly wood engravings, all executed in the very best manner.

"A better Harmony, on a better plan than this of Mr. Strong's does not exist. He has availed himself of all the good things in former works of its class, without servicely copying any. His plan combines the exhibition of each Gospel in separate columns, with that of making a text from portions of all; and it is executed with unsurpareed ingenuity. His exposition or paraphrase—if paraphrase it can be called—gives the sense of the Greek text in a clear, free, simple style, while his notes are critical, explanatory, and concise. It also contains much important matter in three appendixes. To the minister this book is almost indispensable; and its use at family prayers would tend to throw a great amount of interest around the services of the domestic altar,"—Zion's Herald.

To Mears Mortimer of Mombray:

DEAR Sins: In justice to Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Timture, I wish to inform you that I was aken sick on the 3 day of January last, with an affection of the stomach, boels, and kidneys. I was attended by four eminent physclaus for more than two months—all to little or no effect, had some knowledge of the great virtue in Hampton's Timture from one bottle which my wife had taken two year

I came to the conclusion that I would take no more modi-cine from my physicians, but try the Tineture; and I am happy to inform you I had not taken it two days before I felt its powerful influence upon my stomach. I have con-tinued osing the Tineture, and am now able to leave my room, and can eat any common diet wishout much incon-venience or pressure on my stomach.

The afflicted or their friends are daily visiting me, to learn of the great virtue there is in this Tineture of Hampton's.

I appet to send you several corribates in a faw days—one aspecialty from a young lady who has been confined to her room twelve months, with a disease of the head, affecting the brain.

Mesers Mortiner & Moubrey:

Dran Sins: I am happy to inform you that this day finds me in the enjoyment of good health, by the use of your Hampton's Tincture and the bleesing of God. I am enabled to pursue my daily avocations as usual, and I have a great desire that the afflicted should know the great durative rewars of the Tincture. fam. with respect, yours, E. W. HALL hundreds who have felt its healing powers bear the same testimony.

Micros. Mortimer & Mowbray: Gents: Last September I was attacked with erysipeles, from which a dreadful ulcer formed on my rightleg. Getting better of this, has November I took a deep cold, which led to what my physician told me was bilious pleurisy, which left to what my physician told me was bilious pleurisy, which left me with a constant, deoply-seated, and painful cough, having no met day or night, and constantly throwing up from my lungs a thick matter. I became much emaciated, growing weaker every day, and keeping my bed the greater part of the time. My friends thought I had the consumption, and at times I was also of the same opinion. At this stage of my disease, after having tried many and various remedies, without success, a friend advised me to try DR HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC-TURE, and precured me a bottle, which I now pronounce the greatest medicine I ever took. Before I had taken half the contents of one bottle I felt much improved; and now, having taken but two bottes, my couch and pains have entirely left me, and I am enabled to attend to business. I can truly say that, with the bleading of God, I have been restored to the health I now enjoy by the use of this most invaluable medicine.

Northampton (a, April 12, 1852).

Means, Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfit year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpiess; I have tried various remedes to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without receiving any relief; I was at last adviced to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE; before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbe, and my termeth strengthened and revived every way; I have taken five bottles, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and world recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequalled. Yours, ELIZABETH BAGWELL,

Mr. J. E. Boush—Duer Sir: Whife I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vagetable Tineture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, dixiness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the affiliated as a safe and efficient remady.

Such scholars can usually read and learn a lesson if placed in their hands, but they are not ca-pable of taking the Scriptures in hand and preparing them-selves to answer the questions usually proposed in question books.

These books take up all the most important portions of Scalpture history, and furnish both question and enswer in ppro rists language.
The following particulars characterize the books in quee on:

1. The answers are very brief, and printed in large type.

2. The subjects are judiciously selected, running through se whole Bible.

3. As they furnish both questions and answers, the pupil saved from the necessity of having more than one book hand at a time—a very desirable arrangement for young below.
